Accommodation Pricing (Additional to event cost)

Dorm accommodation is available in rooms (most) with en-suites. You will be required to bring your own linen and towels. There is an on-site laundry for emergency use, priority to the kitchen please. If you would like to create a bubble, please talk to friends and family and provide a bubble name for the group and where possible, this will be arranged as the rooms vary in number size.

Camping:

There are campsites, whilst there are no waterpoints and electricity, water and electricity can potentially be provided. Please email the steward to discuss and liaise with the site for your requirements. There are only TWO powered caravan sites. Priority for these will be given to those with a Medical Condition who are bringing a camper/caravan.

Potential Guild Classes and Workshops

Since this is a Guilds based event, there would (hopefully) be classes/talks/demonstrations from all of the official guilds of Lochac as to who they are and what they do, or individuals interested in presenting classes to progress in their guild ranks (if required/wanting too).

The Guild's will be contacted and asked if they would like to contribute as a group with a list of events/classes that held by the group as a whole or by individuals and/or if they would like to have a meeting at the event.

Ideally, I would like to have a representative from each guild and have a class time set aside for the 'Who's Who in the Guild Zoo' where each guild explains who they are, what the biggest achievements are as a group/group projects, and/or have examples available for people to look at and discuss.

If there are any individuals who are wanting to do Guild Sanctioned Classes please provide a list of these people as well, as well as any other classes your Guild would like to present and what you would require from the site (eg. Recording cameras/laptop for streaming, internet, electricity, tables, chairs, kitchen)

Meetings

There is plenty of space to hold meetings for the Guilds and Peerages upon request to the Steward. Please contact the Stewarding team to discuss your requirements.
